

Rufus Wiena, a world class performer inspiring lives and giving unforgettable experiences.

He has fascinated people all over the world with his incredible dexterity in sleight of hand and psychological skills, or as some like to call it, mind reading or sixth sense.

In the start of his career Wiena was awarded first place in the Swedish Championship of Card Magic 2009 and placed fourth in the European Championship of Card Magic 2014.

Since, he has been performing regularly for different TV stations. Some highlights include performing at the MTV's Movie Celebrities Award Show in Beverly Hills, Los Angeles and Spain's most popular TV show "Menuda Noche con Juan y Medio".

In recent years Rufus has dedicated his time to teaching and talking about his astonishing memory techniques, NLP (Neuro Linguistic Programming), body language reading and how to control your automatic nervous system and immune system.

He is based in Europe and travels all around the world to participate in different events and contexts. He has curated shows for renowned companies and is favourable with big crowds.
